Indian Cents

607	Bashlow Restrike Hub Impressions of the 1861 Confederate Cent. On 32mm silver planchets, these impressions were transferred from the original hubs of the Confederate Cent. This lot comes with supporting documentation from Heritage Inc. attesting to the value of this item well in excess of $1,000. The eccentric genius Robert Bashlow was known for obtaining cancelled dies of odd and unusual items. In 1961, upon acquiring the original confederate cent dies of 1861, he reproduced the 1861 Confederate Cent for the 100th anniversary of its coinage. Known as "Bashlow Restrikes", they still appear from time to time complete with the defacings that were present on the dies at the time Bashlow took possession of them. They sell for perhaps $20 to $40 each. But the hub impressions are quite rare. (Bashlow perished in a hotel fire in Spain on July 12th, 1979. He was only 40 at the time of his death.)
